Re: 1993 Proposed Amendments

Dear Chairman Wilkins:

I wish you and the Commission and the Judicial Working Group a productive March 8th conference.

I submit herewith comments on the proposed amendments for the 1993 cycle. As always, silence is ambiguous and may signify one or more of the following: approval; no opinion; deference to others more knowledgeable; no experience; no clue. One almost overriding consideration governs my responses: everyone complains when changes occur and therefore only absolutely necessary changes should be made. Those, we recognize by the vague notion of "consensus," untoward appellate attention, and by the insights contained in comments by Sentencing Commission "consumers."

On separate pages, then, numbered to match with the number of the proposed amendment, I comment where (1) I cannot restrain myself; (2) where I feel certain that reasonable minds will differ and I want my vote recorded; (3) where I feel qualified to take issue with the need for any change at all; and, (4) where I disagree for reasons stated.

If any member of the Commission/staff reviewing these remarks wishes further explanation, please call.

Sincerely,

Alicemarie H. Stotler
United States District Judge

Amendment 27

This is a vote for the Synopsis. I have not the time, patience, or skill to spin out each proposed change; but I like what the Synopsis says it will do.

These giant "healing" amendments are going to be scarce, I hope. Now that the Section 3582(c) "Motions for Modification" are upon us (primarily on account of the additional level for early acceptance of responsibility -- which motions, of course, do not beget sentence modification), the prospect of tinkering with numerous substantive offense levels makes me nervous.
