Attention: Public Information

Gentlemen:

The U.S. Postal Service respectfully submits its comments on the 1993 proposed guideline amendments. As an overview, we disagree with the proposed guidelines on money laundering (Amendment 20) and the guideline commentary on public trust (Amendment 23), and request the adoption of the proposed amendments submitted by the Postal Service relating to the theft of mail (Amendment 44), and the public trust enhancement for offenses committed by postal employees (Amendment 46). In addition, we strongly urge the Commission to consider the future formulation of a "multiple victim" adjustment guideline (Amendment 45). Our comments are explained more fully in the following:

Proposed Amendment 20, § 2S1.1, § 2S1.2. We disagree with the proposed revisions to the money laundering guideline based on the statutory purpose of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1956, 1957. The legislative intent of these statutes is to create a separate crime offense to deter criminals from attempting to profit from their illegal activities and to impose a higher penalty for this type of criminal misconduct. To accomplish this, the statutes prescribe criminal penalties separate from and higher than those of the underlying criminal offense which gave rise to the monies, property or proceeds involved in the money laundering. This legislative intent would in effect be vitiated by the revision to the guideline. Because the underlying offense and the money laundering are two separate crimes, we believe the guidelines should likewise maintain this was not in a trust position), and obviate the need of detailed analysis by the court of the specific duties and responsibilities of the defendant as qualifying the particular position occupied as one of "public trust."

* Proposed Amendment 44, § 2B1.1(b)(4). The current guidelines applicable to mail theft are based on the dollar value of the loss. Although the guideline increases the offense level if mail is involved, we do not feel this adequately addresses the seriousness of the offense and its impact on the victims and on the essential governmental function of mail delivery. The proposed amendments take these factors into consideration by initially increasing the offense level to a level 6, and then adding the appropriate level increase corresponding to the total dollar loss associated with the theft. In order to conform with similar guideline language, the amendment should be reworded to read:

"If undelivered United States Mail was taken, increase by two levels. If the offense is less than level 6, increase to level 6."

In addition to this amendment to the mail theft guideline, we have proposed § 2B1.1(b)(8) to address theft schemes involving large volumes of mail. Frequently, these volume thefts are conducted as a gang-related crime to steal the mail and then fraudulently negotiate or use those items contained within. In most instances, a substantial volume of stolen mail is necessary to obtain a minimal number of checks, credit cards, negotiable instruments or other items of value. The dollar loss of these types of thefts does not accurately reflect the scope of the crime in terms of the number of victims affected and the operations of the government's postal system. Our proposed amendment would address the more serious nature of these schemes to steal large volumes of mail by increasing the offense level to a 14.

Technical corrections to the proposed amendment are needed to clarify the application of the guideline for its purpose. The amendment would read as follows:

8. If the offense involved a scheme to steal multiple pieces of undelivered United States Mail and the offense level determined above is less than level 14, increase to level 14.

Proposed Amendment 45, (§ 3A1.4). The Postal Service remains committed to the principle of victims' rights and supports more guidelines which emphasize victim impact in the sentencing process. We believe the sentencing level should reflect the total harm caused by the defendant's criminal misconduct. Our proposed guideline accomplishes this by including a victim-related adjustment based on the number of victims. For example, in volume mail theft crimes, and in consumer fraud crimes, substantial numbers of victims are directly harmed. We believe that the number of victims impacted by the defendant's relevant conduct should warrant an increase in the offense level. Furthermore, we feel such a guideline should be applied to any offense which results in multiple victims for these reasons.

As proposed, our amendment would give a two-level increase for a crime which results in two or more victims; those crimes affecting more than 100 victims would be subject to an additional two-level increase for each 250 victims, up to a maximum eight-level increase.

Because our proposed amendment is a Chapter 3 adjustment, it would impact on other offenses beyond those which are postal related, which requires a more comprehensive analysis of multiple victim crimes. Accordingly, we urge the Commission to include the study and formulation of a multiple victim guideline as a priority issue for 1994.
